

Reserve FTS Information Bulletin

Foreign Language Program (Joint Language University)

The Joint Language University (JLU) has opened a selection of their catalog material to the members of the U.S. Government at the following link.

<https://jlu.wbtrain.com/sumtotal/jlu2.0/HOME/index.asp>

Joint Language University is a training portal serving the U.S Government and its' members who have a ".mil" or ".gov" email address. Moreover, Joint Language University has gone to great lengths to try and make learning a new language and using their site as simple as possible for all of users, regardless of their computer skills. Moreover, Joint Language University is offering the program materials completely "FREE" to current federal, DoD employees, Active and Reserve Military members; and "AT NO COST" to the various federal entities.

Your assistance in passing this valuable educational resource widely across your networks is greatly appreciated. Please direct questions to your local ESO.

#