SUBJ: SOLICITATION FOR FY19 COAST GUARD RESERVE AWARDS PANEL

A. Recognitions Programs Manual, COMDTINST M1650.26 (series)

B. Coast Guard Reserve Awards Panel, COMDTINST 1650.12 (series)

1. COMDT (CG-13) solicits volunteers to serve on the 2019 Coast Guard Reserve Awards Panel. Panel members have a unique leadership opportunity to impact selection for the Coast Guard Reserve awards and scholarships administered annually by COMDT (CG-131).

2. The panel consists of one Captain (O6), six members, and one alternate.

The alternate will serve as a voting member in the event a quorum cannot be reached.

Selected panel members will be appointed by COMDT (CG-13) to serve for FY2019.

3. The panel will convene multiple times during the year based on the submission schedules for each award or scholarship. The panel will meet virtually and shall deliberate as deemed necessary by the panel president.

4. Panel membership is open to all Coast Guard Active Duty, Reserve, Auxiliary, and Civilian personnel. Applicants shall submit a Coast Guard Memorandum not to exceed one page, addressing interest in panel membership and reasons for applying.

Military applicants shall include an Employee Summary Sheet from Coast Guard Business Intelligence (CGBI). Civilian applicants shall include a personal resume. All applications must have command signature endorsement and shall be submitted electronically in PDF format to the point of contact (POC) below. Application deadline is 30 September 2018.

5. Additional information regarding the Coast Guard Reserve Forces Awards may be found in Chapter 7 of REF (A). Information about the Coast Guard Reserve Awards Panel may be found in REF (B).

6. POC: ENS Dennis O'Neill, COMDT (CG-1313), Dennis.R.O'Neill@uscg.mil or 202-475-5437.

7. CAPT C.J. Hulser, Acting Director of Reserve and Military Personnel, sends.

8. Internet release authorized.
