

Master Chief Frank Gorman

U.S. Coast Guard Reserve
Maritime Enforcement Specialist

Director of Logistics Reserve Command Master Chief

Master Chief Frank Gorman enlisted in the Coast Guard Reserve on March 26, 1990; and was assigned to Reserve Unit 2, Captain of the Port New York, then Activities NY, and finally to Sector NY. On July 13, 2009, he reported aboard Sector Delaware Bay and assumed the duties of Reserve Command Master Chief. Master Chief Gorman returned to Sector New York as the Reserve Silver Badge CMCPO on August 19, 2013. Effective October 1, 2017, he assumed duties as the Reserve Command Master Chief for the Director of Logistics, Norfolk, Virginia.

Recalled to active duty on September 11, 2001, and again in 2003 and 2006, he has served a total of 51 months on active duty during three activations in support of the Global War on Terrorism. More recently, MCPO Gorman was recalled for two months active duty for the Coast Guard response to the Deepwater Horizon Disaster to the Gulf Coast, where he served as the CMC for ICP Mobile, Alabama.

MCPO Gorman advanced to E7 on January 1, 2000, attended the CPO Academy in July 2000, and was Initiated a Chief on October 5, 2000. He is a life member of USCG Chief Petty Officers Association (CPOA), former two term President of the Kleckner Chapter NY Area CPOA; and holds membership in the American Legion, the Naval Institute, Navy League, and the Fleet Reserve Association.

As a drilling reservist, MC Gorman has held various Marine Safety & Port Security qualifications, served as a qualified crew member on the WYTL Class harbor tugs, was the reserve non rate training manager and Education Services Officer at Sector New York for nine years, and also served as the Collateral duty Silver Badge.

In his civilian life, MCPO Gorman resides in Avon by the Sea, NJ. Born and raised in Manhattan, MCPO Gorman summered in Avon before permanently relocating there in 1986. A life member of the Avon Fire Department, he has provided volunteer service to the community since 1987, and served two years as fire chief. He is also a life member of the New Jersey State Firemen's Relief Association. MCPO Gorman is currently serving a third consecutive four year term as the Commissioner of Public Safety for the Borough of Avon by the Sea.

Upon his 1987 graduation from Fordham University he accepted full time employment at NJ TRANSIT, where he had previously interned since 1983. He retired from NJ TRANSIT in August 2016, and is now employed as a Port Security Specialist with Coast Guard, at Sector New York. Master

Chief Gorman is used his Post 9/11 GI Bill benefits to earn a Master of Homeland Security Degree from Monmouth University, graduating with a 4.0 GPA on August 31, 2015. He is also a graduate of the FBI Citizens Academy and the NJ TRANSIT Police Department Citizens Academy.

MCPO Gorman's military awards include five CG Commendation Medals, the SECDOTs September 11th Medal, two CG Achievement Medals, Commandant's Letter of Commendation, CG Good Conduct Medal, six CG Reserve Good Conduct Medals, two National Defense Medals, Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, and the Armed Forces Reserve Medal with silver hourglass, "M" device & numeral 4, the Marine Safety Insignia, and several unit and team commendations. Master Chief Gorman is married to the former Sharon Glynn of Allenhurst, NJ; they have no children.

